

A NEW SONG CALL'D THE WONDERS OF THE WORLD

Goed people draw near to what I am going to relate,
Yon'l be surpris'd at the wonders that I saw of late,
I saw a small eroul devouring up a larg whale,
And I saw Dublio citp coaceald in the shell of a snail.

I saw a smell wren vanishing a bied call'd the rock,
And I saw a jackdaw in mountrath and he mendig a clock
I saw a spar owhawk in Dundoock and he mending old shoes
And I saw a skylark with a specktacles neding the new

I saw a small mouse devouring up a large cat.
I saw the new customhouse thrown down by the wing of a bat
I saw nelsons piller for a needic a taylor did sew,
And I saw newbridge makcng wigs for the county mayo,

I saw barrack hill in the bill of a small bartan heu
I saw watetford city going down to set in malin,
I saw a onck fle a carieing hay for the Lord of tyrone,
And I saw kilkenny town going down to visit athlone,

I saw the hill of Hoath in a boat sail down to Kildare,
I saw the county Cork riding off to the county of Clare,
I saw Limrik c,ty place'd down in a basket of buas
I saw the old Royal George in Loughrea and she fireing her guns

I saw Mullingar in a exr drawn by a jaed ass;
I saw Cashel town drawing salt from Carrig macross
I saw Eniskillin distiling strong whisky in Athy,
And I saw the Emporess of Greec killiug Geese in a Vilage harddy

I saw a old Ram beat a drnm in the town of Tralee,
I saw an overgrown pig dance a jig in the fair of Ardee
I heard a blind piper play nihely nine hundredsougs
And a buck flea standing by playiug Mathew Malone on the tonge

I saw a blacsmith fergeing a woodden toomb stone.
I saw a woodenleg'd tailor and he weaveing old spades in a loom
I saw a felt hat that was taned by a baker in Hote,
And I saw the river Shannon without either salmon or trout

I saw Carran town and it frping Ballybay in a pan,
I saw the whole earthly globe tur ing round in a old water can
I saw a mel cow that had horns a hundred yards long,
And I saw a goat makeing brouges and he hammer.ng his lether dingdong.
